Some 225 Cubs, their parents, Scouts and special guests attended the annual Blue and Gold banquet of Pack 10 Tuesday evening at the Central Church of Christ. Table decorations carried out the color theme with blue and gold candles and similarly colored branches with the Scout promise hanging from each branch.

J. E. McElroy gave the invocation preceding the dinner. As a part of the program, Geraldine Rundell, accompanied by Dean Entrekin, sang "Mighty Lak a Rose," "Danny Boy" and "A Little Bit of Heaven."

R. V. Haverkamp, Scout executive, was the featured speaker. Other special guests were Richard McSpadden, eagle scout, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McElroy and family and Harry Thurman, scoutmaster.

Four boys, members of cubs, received their Webelos awards, the highest award in cubs, they were Larry Kuxhausen, Jimmy Harding, Harrison Lee Warner and Warren Wood. Mr. Thurman then accepted the boys into Scout troop 15. Some 30 other boys also received awards.
